financial year 2010-2011.*

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be called the Finance Act, 2010. Short title and commencement.
- 5 (2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, sections 2 to 56 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 2010.

CHAPTER II

RATES OF INCOME-TAX

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), for the assessment year commencing on Income-tax.
10 the 1st day of April, 2010, income-tax shall be charged at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule and such tax shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein.

(2) In the cases to which Paragraph A of Part I of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year, any net agricultural income exceeding five thousand rupees, in addition to 15 total income, and the total income exceeds one lakh sixty thousand rupees, then,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first one lakh sixty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of charging income-tax in respect of the total income; and

20 (b) the income-tax chargeable shall be calculated as follows:—

(i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if such aggregate income were the total income;

25 (ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of one lakh sixty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if the net agricultural income as so increased were the total income;

30 (iii) the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax in respect of the total income:

Provided that in the case of every woman, resident in India and below the age of sixty-five years at any time during the previous year, referred to in item (II) of Paragraph A of Part I of the First Schedule, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words "one lakh sixty thousand rupees", the words "one lakh ninety thousand rupees" had been substituted:

35 Provided further that in the case of every individual, being a resident in India, who is of the age of sixty-five years or more at any time during the previous year, referred to in item (III) of Paragraph A of Part I of the First Schedule, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words "one lakh sixty thousand rupees", the words "two lakh forty thousand rupees" had been substituted.

(3) In cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or Chapter XII-H or section
40 115JB or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act) apply, the tax chargeable shall be determined as provided in that Chapter or that section, and with reference to the rates imposed by sub-section (1) or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be:

Provided that the amount of income-tax computed in accordance with the provisions of section 111A or section 112 shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, as provided in Paragraph A, B, C, D or E, as the case may be, of Part I of the First Schedule: 5

Provided further that in respect of any income chargeable to tax under sections 115A, 115AB, 115AC, 115ACA, 115AD, 115B, 115BB, 115BBA, 115BBC, 115E and 115JB of the Income-tax Act, the amount of income-tax computed under this sub-section shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated,—

(a) in the case of a domestic company, at the rate of ten per cent. of such income-tax where the total income exceeds one crore rupees; 10

(b) in the case of every company, other than a domestic company, at the rate of two and one-half per cent. of such income-tax where the total income exceeds one crore rupees:

Provided also that in the case of every company having total income chargeable to tax under section 115JB of the Income-tax Act, and such income exceeds one crore rupees, the total amount payable as income-tax and surcharge on such income-tax shall not exceed the total amount payable as income-tax on a total income of one crore rupees by more than the amount of income that exceeds one crore rupees. 15

(4) In cases in which tax has to be charged and paid under section 115-O or sub-section (2) of section 115R of the Income-tax Act, the tax shall be charged and paid at the rates as specified in those sections and shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated at the rate of seven and one-half per cent. of such tax. 20

(5) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 193, 194, 194A, 194B, 194BB, 194D and 195 of the Income-tax Act, at the rates in force, the deductions shall be made at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule and shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated in cases wherever prescribed, in the manner provided therein. 25

(6) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 194C, 194E, 194EE, 194F, 194G, 194H, 194-I, 194J, 194LA, 196B, 196C and 196D of the Income-tax Act, the deductions shall be made at the rates specified in those sections and shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, in the case of every company, other than a domestic company, calculated at the rate of two and one-half per cent. of such tax, where the income or the aggregate of such incomes paid or likely to be paid and subject to the deduction exceeds one crore rupees. 30

(7) In cases in which tax has to be collected under the proviso to section 194B of the Income-tax Act, the collection shall be made at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule, and shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated, in cases wherever prescribed, in the manner provided therein. 35

(8) In cases in which tax has to be collected under section 206C of the Income-tax Act, the collection shall be made at the rates specified in that section and shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, in the case of every company, other than a domestic company, calculated at the rate of two and one-half per cent. of such tax, where the amount or the aggregate of such amounts collected and subject to the collection exceeds one crore rupees. 40

(9) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (10), in cases in which income-tax has to be charged under sub-section (4) of section 172 or sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 174A or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176 of the Income-tax Act or deducted from, or paid on, income chargeable under the head "Salaries" under section 192 of the said Act or in which the "advance tax" payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act has to be computed at the rate or rates in force, such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" shall be so charged, deducted or computed at the rate or rates specified in Part III of the First Schedule and such tax shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated in such cases and in such manner as provided therein: 45

Provided that in cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or section 115JB or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act apply, "advance tax" shall be computed with reference to the rates imposed by this sub-section or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be: 50

Provided further that the amount of "advance tax" computed in accordance with the provisions of section 111A or section 112 of the Income-tax Act shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, as provided in Paragraph E of Part III of the First Schedule pertaining to the case of a company: 55

Provided also that in respect of any income chargeable to tax under sections 115A, 115AB, 115AC, 115ACA, 115AD, 115B, 115BB, 115BBA, 115BBC, 115E and 115JB of the Income-tax Act, "advance tax” computed under the first proviso shall be increased by a surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated,—

- (a) in the case of every domestic company, at the rate of seven and one-half per cent. of such “advance tax” where the total income exceeds one crore rupees;
- 5 (b) in the case of every company, other than a domestic company, at the rate of two and one-half per cent. of such “advance tax” where the total income exceeds one crore rupees:

Provided also that in the case of every company having total income chargeable to tax under section 115JB of the Income-tax Act, and such income exceeds one crore rupees, the total amount payable as “advance tax” on such income and surcharge thereon, shall not exceed the total amount payable as 10 “advance tax” on a total income of one crore rupees by more than the amount of income that exceeds one crore rupees.

(10) In cases to which Paragraph A of Part III of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than the previous year, in such other period, any net agricultural
15 income exceeding five thousand rupees, in addition to total income and the total income exceeds one lakh sixty thousand rupees, then, in charging income-tax under sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 174A or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176 of the said Act or in computing the “advance tax” payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act, at the rate or rates in force,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first one lakh sixty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of charging or 20 computing such income-tax or, as the case may be, “advance tax” in respect of the total income; and

(b) such income-tax or, as the case may be, “advance tax” shall be so charged or computed as follows:—

25 (i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax or “advance tax” shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if such aggregate income were the total income;

(ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of one lakh sixty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax or “advance tax” shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural
30 income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if the net agricultural income were the total income;

(iii) the amount of income-tax or “advance tax” determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax or, as the case may be, “advance tax” determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax or, as the 35 case may be, “advance tax” in respect of the total income:

Provided that in the case of every woman, resident in India and below the age of sixty-five years at any time during the previous year, referred to in item (II) of Paragraph A of Part III of the First Schedule, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words “one lakh sixty thousand rupees”, the words “one lakh ninety thousand rupees” had been substituted:

40 Provided further that in the case of every individual, being a resident in India, who is of the age of sixty-five years or more at any time during the previous year, referred to in item (III) of Paragraph A of Part III of the First Schedule, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words “one lakh sixty thousand rupees”, the words “two lakh forty thousand rupees” had been substituted.

(11) The amount of income-tax as specified in sub-sections (1) to (10) and as increased by the applicable
45 surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated in the manner provided therein, shall be further increased by an additional surcharge, for purposes of the Union, to be called the “Education Cess on income-tax”, calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such income-tax and surcharge so as to fulfil the commitment of the Government to provide and finance universalised quality basic education:

50 Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to cases in which tax is to be deducted or collected under the sections of the Income-tax Act mentioned in sub-sections (5), (6), (7) and (8), if the income subjected to deduction of tax at source or collection of tax at source is paid to a domestic company and any other person who is resident in India.

(12) The amount of income-tax as specified in sub-sections (1) to (10) and as increased by the applicable surcharge, for purposes of the Union, calculated in the manner provided therein, shall also 55 be increased by an additional surcharge, for purposes of the Union, to be called the “Secondary and Higher Education Cess on income-tax”, calculated at the rate of one per cent. of such income-tax and surcharge so as to fulfil the commitment of the Government to provide and finance secondary and higher education:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to cases in which tax is to be deducted or collected under the sections of the Income-tax Act mentioned in sub-sections (5), (6), (7) and (8), if the income subjected to deduction of tax at source or collection of tax at source is paid to a domestic company and any other person who is resident in India.

(13) For the purposes of this section and the First Schedule,— 5

(a) “domestic company” means an Indian company or any other company which, in respect of its income liable to income-tax under the Income-tax Act, for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2010, has made the prescribed arrangements for the declaration and payment within India of the dividends (including dividends on preference shares) payable out of such income;

(b) “insurance commission” means any remuneration or reward, whether by way of commission 10 or otherwise, for soliciting or procuring insurance business (including business relating to the continuance, renewal or revival of policies of insurance);

(c) “net agricultural income”, in relation to a person, means the total amount of agricultural income, from whatever source derived, of that person computed in accordance with the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule; 15

(d) all other words and expressions used in this section and the First Schedule but not defined in this sub-section and defined in the Income-tax Act shall have the meanings, respectively, assigned to them in that Act.

(ii) for a consideration which is less than the aggregate fair market value of the property by an amount exceeding fifty thousand rupees, the aggregate fair market value of such property as exceeds such consideration:

Provided that this clause shall not apply to any such property received by way of a transaction not regarded as transfer under clause (via) or clause (vic) or clause (vicb) or clause (vid) or clause (vii) of section 47.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, “fair market value” of a property, being shares of a company not being a company in which the public are substantially interested, shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Explanation to clause (vii);.

Amendment
of section
72A.

22. In section 72A of the Income-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of April, 2011,—

(a) after sub-section (6), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“(6A) Where there has been reorganisation of business whereby a private company or unlisted public company is succeeded by a limited liability partnership fulfilling the conditions laid down in the proviso to clause (xiiib) of section 47, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the predecessor company, shall be deemed to be the loss or allowance for depreciation of the successor limited liability partnership for the purpose of the previous year in which business reorganisation was effected and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly:

Provided that if any of the conditions laid down in the proviso to clause (xiiib) of section 47 are not complied with, the set off of loss or allowance of depreciation made in any previous year in the hands of the successor limited liability partnership, shall be deemed to be the income of the limited liability partnership chargeable to tax in the year in which such conditions are not complied with.”;

(b) in sub-section (7), for clauses (a) and (b), the following clauses shall, respectively, be substituted, namely:—

“(a) “accumulated loss” means so much of the loss of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the private company or unlisted public company before conversion into limited liability partnership or the amalgamating company or the demerged company, as the case may be, under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” (not being a loss sustained in a speculation business) which such predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the company or amalgamating company or demerged company, would have been entitled to carry forward and set off under the provisions of section 72 if the reorganisation of business or conversion or amalgamation or demerger had not taken place;

(b) “unabsorbed depreciation” means so much of the allowance for depreciation of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the private company or unlisted public company before conversion into limited liability partnership or the amalgamating company or the demerged company, as the case may be, which remains to be allowed and which would have been allowed to the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the company or amalgamating company or demerged company, as the case may be, under the provisions of this Act, if the reorganisation of business or conversion or amalgamation or demerger had not taken place;’.

(2) Where a person opts to pay the amount in accordance with the provisions of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 as amended by sub-section (1), he shall pay the amount along with interest specified thereunder and make an application to the Commissioner of Central Excise along with documentary evidence and a certificate from a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant certifying the amount of input credit attributable to the inputs used in or in relation to the manufacture of the final products, which are exempted from the whole of the duty of excise leviable thereon or chargeable to nil rate of duty, within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President. (3) The Commissioner of Central Excise shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (2), verify the correctness of the amount paid within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the application and in case the amount so paid is found to be less than the amount payable, he shall call upon the applicant to pay the differential amount along with interest, which shall be paid within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of the communication from the Commissioner in this regard.	40 45 50

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of September, 1996 and ending with the 31st day of March, 2000, relating to the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done as if the amendment made by sub-section (1) had been in force at all material times.

(5) Notwithstanding the supersession of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to make rules with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to make rules under section 37 of the Central Excise Act, retrospectively, at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this section not come into force.

69. (1) In the Central Excise Rules, 1944, made by the Central Government in exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excise Act, rule 57D, as substituted by rule 2 of the Central Excise (Second Amendment) Rules, 2000, published in the Official Gazette vide notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 203(E), dated the 1st March, 2000, and subsequently substituted as rule 57AD by rule 5 of the Central Excise [Second Amendment (Amendment)] Rules, 2000, published in the Gazette of India, vide notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 298 (E), dated the 31st March, 2000, shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended retrospectively, in the manner specified in column (3) of the Fifth Schedule on and from and up to the corresponding date specified in column (4) of that Schedule against the rules specified in column (2) of that Schedule.

Amendment of rule 57AD of Central Excise Rules, 1944.

(2) Where a person opts to pay the amount in accordance with the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), he shall pay the amount along with interest specified thereunder and make an application to the Commissioner of Central Excise along with documentary evidence and a certificate from a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant certifying the amount of input credit attributable to the inputs used in or in relation to the manufacture of the final products, which are exempted from the whole of the duty of excise leviable thereon or chargeable to nil rate of duty, within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

(3) The Commissioner of Central Excise shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (2), verify the correctness of the amount paid within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the application and in case the amount so paid is found to be less than the amount payable, he shall upon the applicant to pay the differential amount along with interest, which shall be paid within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of the communication from the Commissioner in this regard.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of April, 2000 and ending with the 30th day of June, 2001 relating to the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done as if the amendment made by sub-section (1) had been in force at all material times.

(5) Notwithstanding the supersession of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to make rules with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to make rules under section 37 of the Central Excise Act, retrospectively, at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this section not come into force.

70. (1) In the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2001, made by the Central Government in exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excise Act and published in the Official Gazette vide notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 445(E), dated the 21st June, 2001, rule 6 shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended retrospectively, in the manner specified in column (3) of the Sixth Schedule, on and from and up to the corresponding date specified in column (4) of that Schedule against the rules specified in column (2) of that Schedule.

Amendment of rule 6 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2001.

(2) Where a person opts to pay the amount in accordance with the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), he shall pay the amount along with interest specified thereunder and make an application to the Commissioner of Central Excise along with documentary evidence and a certificate from a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant certifying the amount of input credit attributable to the inputs used in or in relation to the manufacture of exempted goods within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

(3) The Commissioner of Central Excise shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (2), verify the correctness of the amount paid within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the application and in case the amount so paid is found to be less than the amount payable, he shall call upon the applicant to pay the differential amount along with interest, which shall be paid within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of the communication from the Commissioner in this regard. 5

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of July, 2001 and ending with the 28th day of February, 2002, relating to the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done as if the amendment made by sub-section (1) had been in force at all material times. 10

(5) Notwithstanding the supersession of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2001, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to make rules with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to make rules under section 37 of the Central Excise Act, retrospectively, at all material times. 15

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this section not come into force. 20

Amendment of rule 6 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2002.

71. (1) In the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2002, made by the Central Government in exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excise Act, and published in the Official Gazette vide notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 144(E), dated the 1st March, 2002, rule 6 shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended retrospectively, in the manner specified in column (3) of the Seventh Schedule, on and from and up to the corresponding date specified in column (4) of that Schedule against the rule specified in column (2) of that Schedule. 25

(2) Where a person opts to pay the amount in accordance with the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), he shall pay the amount along with interest specified thereunder and make an application to the Commissioner of Central Excise along with documentary evidence and a certificate from a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant certifying the amount of input credit attributable to the inputs used in or in relation to the manufacture of exempted goods within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President. 30

(3) The Commissioner of Central Excise shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (2), verify the correctness of the amount paid within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the application and in case the amount so paid is found to be less than the amount payable, he shall call upon the applicant to pay the differential amount along with interest, which shall be paid within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of the communication from the Commissioner in this regard. 35

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of March, 2002 and ending with the 9th day of September, 2004, relating to the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be, and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done as if the amendment made by sub-section (1) had been in force at all material times. 40

(5) Notwithstanding the supersession of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2002, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to make rules with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to make rules under section 37 of the Central Excise Act, retrospectively, at all material times. 45

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this section not come into force. 50

Amendment of rule 6 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004.

72. (1) In the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, made by the Central Government in exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excise Act, as published in the Official Gazette vide notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 600(E), dated the 10th September, 2004, rule 6 shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended retrospectively, in the manner specified in column (3) of the Eighth Schedule, on and from and up to the corresponding date specified in column (4) of that Schedule against the rule specified in column (2) of that Schedule. 55

(2) Where a person opts to pay the amount in accordance with the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), he shall pay the amount along with interest specified thereunder and make an application to the Commissioner of Central Excise along with documentary evidence and a certificate from a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant, certifying the amount of input credit attributable to the inputs used in or in relation to the manufacture of exempted goods, within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

(3) The Commissioner of Central Excise shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (2), verify the correctness of the amount paid within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the application and in case the amount so paid is found to be less than the amount payable, he shall call upon the applicant to pay the differential amount along with interest, which shall be paid within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of the communication from the Commissioner in this regard.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 10th day of September, 2004 and ending with the 31st day of March, 2008, relating to the provisions as amended by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done as if the amendment made by sub-section (1) had been in force at all material times.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to make rules with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to make rules under section 37 of the Central Excise Act, retrospectively, at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this section not come into force.

“Explanation 2.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no penalty under any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall be imposed in respect of payment of service-tax under this sub-section and interest thereon.”;

(D) in section 95, after sub-section (1F), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1G) If any difficulty arises in respect of implementing, classifying or assessing the value of any taxable service incorporated in this Chapter by the Finance Act, 2010, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter, remove the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of one year from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.”.

Validation of action taken under sub-clause (zzzz) of clause (105) of section 65.

76. Any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done or purported to have been taken or done or omitted to be done under sub-clause (zzzz) of clause (105) of section 65 of the Finance Act, 1994, at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of June, 2007 and ending with the day, the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President, shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made in sub-clause (zzzz) of clause (105) of section 65, by sub-item (i) of item (h) of sub-clause (5) of clause (A) of section 75 of the Finance Act, 2010 had been in force at all material times and, accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority,—

(a) any action taken or anything done or omitted to be taken or done in relation to the levy and collection of service tax during the said period on the taxable service of renting of immovable property, shall be deemed to be and deemed always to have been, as validly taken or done or omitted to be done as if the said amendment had been in force at all material times;

(b) no suit or other proceedings shall be maintained or continued in any court, tribunal or other authority for the levy and collection of such service tax and no enforcement shall be made by any court of any decree or order relating to such action taken or anything done or omitted to be done as if the said amendment had been in force at all material times;

(c) recovery shall be made of all such amounts of service tax, interest or penalty or fine or other charges which may not have been collected or, as the case may be, which have been refunded but which would have been collected or, as the case may be, would not have been refunded, as if the said amendment had been in force at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable had this amendment not come into force.

32 of 1994.

CHAPTER VI
CENTRAL SALES TAX

Amendment
of section 6A.

77. In the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the Central Sales Tax Act), in section 6A,—

74 of 1956.

(a) in sub-section (2), for the portion beginning with the words “are true, he may” and ending with the words “declaration relates shall”, the words “are true and that no inter-State sale has been effected, he may, at the time of, or at any time before, the assessment of the tax payable by the dealer under this Act, make an order to that effect and thereupon the movement of goods to which the declaration relates shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3),” shall be substituted; 50

(b) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) Nothing contained in sub-section (2) shall preclude reassessment by the assessing authority on the ground of discovery of new facts or revision by a higher authority on the ground that the findings of the assessing authority are contrary to law, and such reassessment or revision may be done in accordance with the provisions of general sales tax law of the State.”.

78. After Chapter V of the Central Sales Tax Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:— Insertion of new Chapter VA.

‘CHAPTER VA

APPEALS TO THE HIGHEST APPELLATE AUTHORITY OF THE STATE

18A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in a State Act, any person aggrieved by an order made by the assessing authority under sub-section (2) of section 6A, or an order made under the provisions of sub-section (3) of that section, may, notwithstanding anything contained in the general sales tax law of the appropriate State, prefer an appeal to the highest appellate authority of the State against such order: Appeals to highest appellate authority of State.

Provided that any incidental issues including the rate of tax, computation of assessable turnover and penalty may be raised in such appeal.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be filed within sixty days from the date on which the order referred to in that sub-section is communicated to the aggrieved person:

Provided that any appeal forwarded by the highest appellate authority of a State to the first appellate authority under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 25 and pending before such authority immediately before the appointed day shall be transferred, on such appointed day, to the highest appellate authority of the State and the same shall be treated as an appeal filed under sub-section (1) and dealt with accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, “appointed day” means such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

(3) The highest appellate authority of a State may, after giving both the parties an opportunity of being heard, pass appropriate order.

(4) The highest appellate authority of the State may, as far as practicable, hear and decide such appeal within a period of six months from the date of filing of the appeal.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in a State Act, the highest appellate authority of a State may, on the application of the appellant and after considering relevant facts, including the deposit of any amount towards local or central sales tax in other States on the same goods, pass an order of stay subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and such order may, inter alia, indicate the portion of tax as assessed, to be deposited prior to admission of the appeal.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section and sections 20, 21, 22 and 25, “highest appellate authority of a State”, with its grammatical variations, means any authority or tribunal or court, except the High Court, established or constituted under the general sales tax law of a State, by whatever name called.’

79. In section 20 of the Central Sales Tax Act, for sub-section (1) and the Explanation thereunder, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:— Amendment of section 20.

“(1) An appeal shall lie to the Authority against any order passed by the highest appellate authority of a State under this Act determining issues relating to stock transfers or consignments of goods, in so far as they involve a dispute of inter-State nature.”.

80. In section 22 of the Central Sales Tax Act,—

Amendment of section 22.

(a) for the word “pre-deposit”, wherever it occurs, the word “deposit” shall be substituted;

(b) after sub-section (1A), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1B) The Authority may issue direction for refund of tax collected by a State which has been held by the Authority to be not due to that State, or alternatively, direct that State to transfer the refundable amount to the State to which central sales tax is due on the same transaction:

Provided that the amount of tax directed to be refunded by a State shall not exceed the amount of central sales tax payable by the appellant on the same transaction.”.

81. In section 25 of the Central Sales Tax Act, the proviso to sub-section (2) shall be omitted. Amendment of section 25.

CHAPTER VII

CLEAN ENERGY CESS

Clean Energy Cess.	82. (1) This Chapter extends to the whole of India.
	(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.	5
	(3) There shall be levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, a cess to be called the Clean Energy Cess, as duty of excise, on goods specified in the Tenth Schedule, being goods produced in India, at the rates set forth in the said Schedule for the purposes of financing and promoting clean energy initiatives, funding research in the area of clean energy or for any other purpose relating thereto.	10
	(4) The proceeds of the cess levied under sub-section (3) shall first be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India and the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, utilise such sums of the money of the cess for the purposes specified in sub-section (3), as it may consider necessary.
	(5) The cess leviable under sub-section (3) shall be in addition to any cess or duty leviable on the goods specified in the Tenth Schedule under any other law for the time being in force.	15
	(6) The cess leviable under sub-section (3) shall be for the purposes of the Union and the proceeds thereof shall not be distributed among the States and the manner of assessment, collection, utilisation and any other matter relating to cess shall be such as may be prescribed by rules.
	(7) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare that any of the provisions of the Central Excise Act, 1944, relating to levy of and exemption from duty of excise, refund, offences and penalties, confiscation and procedure relating to offences and appeals shall, with such modifications and alterations as it may consider necessary, be applicable in respect of cess levied under sub-section (3).	20 1 of 1944.
Power of Central Government to make rules.	83. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Chapter.	25
	(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for —
	(a) the manner of assessment, collection and utilisation of the cess under sub-section (6) of section 82;	30
	(b) any other matter relating to the cess under sub-section (6) of section 82.
	(3) Every rule made and every notification issued under this Chapter shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made or issued, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session, or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or notification, or both Houses agree that the rule or notification should not be made or issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.	35 40

25 (a) royalties received from Government or an Indian concern in pursuance of an agreement made by it with the Government or the Indian concern after the 31st day of March, 1961 but before the 1st day of April, 1976; or

30 (b) fees for rendering technical services received from Government or an Indian concern in pursuance of an agreement made by it with the Government or the Indian concern after the 29th day of February, 1964 but before the 1st day of April, 1976, and where such agreement has, in either case, been approved by the Central Government 50 per cent.;

(ii) on the balance, if any, of the total income 40 per cent.

35 Surcharge on income-tax

The amount of income-tax computed in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Paragraph, or in section 111A or section 112, shall, in the case of every company, be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated,—

(i) in the case of every domestic company having a total income exceeding one crore rupees, at the rate of seven and one-half per cent. of such income-tax;

40 (ii) in the case of every company other than a domestic company having a total income exceeding one crore rupees at the rate of two and one-half per cent.:

Provided that in the case of every company having a total income exceeding one crore rupees, the total amount payable as income-tax and surcharge on such income shall not exceed the total amount payable as income-tax on a total income of one crore rupees by more than the amount of income that exceeds one crore rupees.

PART IV

[See section 2(13)(c)]

RULES FOR COMPUTATION OF NET AGRICULTURAL INCOME

Rule 1.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Income from other sources” and the provisions of sections 57 to 59 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly: 5

Provided that sub-section (2) of section 58 shall apply subject to the modification that the reference to section 40A therein shall be construed as not including a reference to sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 40A.

Rule 2.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act [other than income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue of the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c)] shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” and the provisions of sections 30, 31, 32, 36, 37, 38, 40, 40A [other than sub-sections (3) and (4) thereof], 41, 43, 43A, 43B and 43C of the Income-tax Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly. 10

Rule 3.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, being income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c) shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Income from house property” and the provisions of sections 23 to 27 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly. 15

Rule 4.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of these rules, in a case— 20

(a) where the assessee derives income from sale of tea grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 8 of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee;

(b) where the assessee derives income from sale of centrifuged latex or cenex or latex based crepes (such as pale latex crepe) or brown crepes (such as estate brown crepe, re-milled crepe, smoked blanket crepe or flat bark crepe) or technically specified block rubbers manufactured or processed by him from rubber plants grown by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7A of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty-five per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee; 25

(c) where the assessee derives income from sale of coffee grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7B of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. or seventy-five per cent., as the case may be, of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee. 30

Rule 5.—Where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) which in the previous year has either no income chargeable to tax under the Income-tax Act or has total income not exceeding the maximum amount not chargeable to tax in the case of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) but has any agricultural income then, the agricultural income or loss of the association or body shall be computed in accordance with these rules and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income or loss so computed shall be regarded as the agricultural income or loss of the assessee. 35

Rule 6.—Where the result of the computation for the previous year in respect of any source of agricultural income is a loss, such loss shall be set off against the income of the assessee, if any, for that previous year from any other source of agricultural income:

Provided that where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income of the association or body, as the case may be, is a loss, such loss shall not be set off against any income of the assessee from any other source of agricultural income. 40

Rule 7.—Any sum payable by the assessee on account of any tax levied by the State Government on the agricultural income shall be deducted in computing the agricultural income.

Rule 8.—(1) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2010, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 2002 or the 1st day of April, 2003 or the 1st day of April, 2004 or the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009, is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 2 of this Act,— 45

(i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2002, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment 50

year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003 or the 1st day of April, 2004 or the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

5 (ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2004 or the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

10 (iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2004, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2005, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

15 (v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2006, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

20 (vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2007, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2008, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2009,

25 (viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2009, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2010.

30 (2) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2011, or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than the previous year, in such other period, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003 or the 1st day of April, 2004 or the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010, is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (10) of section 2 of this Act,—

35 (i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2004 or the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

40 (ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2004, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2005 or the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

45 (iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2005, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2006 or the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2006, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2007 or the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

50 (v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2007, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2008 or the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

(vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2008, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2009 or the 1st day of April, 2010,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2009, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2010, 5

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2010, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2011.

(3) Where any person deriving any agricultural income from any source has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, otherwise than by inheritance, nothing in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall entitle any person, other than the person incurring the loss, to have it set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2). 10

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, no loss which has not been determined by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of these rules or the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2002 (20 of 2002), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2003 (32 of 2003), or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004 (23 of 2004) or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2005 (18 of 2005), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2006 (21 of 2006) or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2007 (22 of 2007) or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2008 (18 of 2008) or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2009 (33 of 2009) shall be set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2). 15

Rule 9.—Where the net result of the computation made in accordance with these rules is a loss, the loss so computed shall be ignored and the net agricultural income shall be deemed to be nil. 20

Rule 10.—The provisions of the Income-tax Act relating to procedure for assessment (including the provisions of section 288A relating to rounding off of income) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the computation of the net agricultural income of the assessee as they apply in relation to the assessment of the total income.

Rule 11.—For the purposes of computing the net agricultural income of the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall have the same powers as he has under the Income-tax Act for the purposes of assessment of the total income. 25

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 2010-2011. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions contained in the Bill.

PRANAB MUKHERJEE.

NEW DELHI;
The 26th February, 2010.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 2(10)-B(D)/2010, dated the 26th February, 2010 from Shri Pranab Mukherjee, Minister of Finance, to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill, recommends, under clauses (1) and (3) of article 117, read with clause (1) of article 274, of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Finance Bill, 2010 to the Lok Sabha and also recommends to the Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill.

2. The Bill will be introduced in the Lok Sabha immediately after the presentation of the Budget on the 26th February, 2010.

Notes on clauses

Income-tax

Clause 2, read with the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be levied on income chargeable to tax for the assessment year 2010-2011. Further, it lays down the rates at which tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2010-2011 from income other than "Salaries" subject to such deductions under the Income-tax Act; and the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid, tax is to be deducted at source from, or paid on, income chargeable under the head "Salaries" and tax is to be calculated and charged in special cases for the financial year 2010-2011.

Rates of income-tax for the assessment year 2010-2011

Part I of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income is liable to tax for the assessment year 2010-2011. These rates are the same as those, specified in Part III of the First Schedule to the Finance (No.2) Act, 2009, for the purposes of deduction of tax at source from "Salaries", computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2009-2010.

Rates of deduction of tax at source during the financial year 2010-2011 from income other than "Salaries"

Part II of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2010-2011 from income other than "Salaries". The rates are the same as those specified in Part II of the First Schedule to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2009 for the purposes of deduction of income-tax at source during the financial year 2009-2010.

The amount of tax so deducted shall be increased by a surcharge at the rate of two and one-half per cent. in the case of a company other than a domestic company. In all other cases, no surcharge will be levied on the tax deducted at source.

Rates for deduction of tax at source from "Salaries", computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2010-2011

Part III of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source from, or paid on, income under the head "Salaries" and also the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid and income-tax is to be calculated or charged in special cases for the financial year 2010-2011.

Paragraph A of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of every individual or Hindu undivided family or every association of persons or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, or every artificial juridical person referred to in sub-clause (vii) of clause (31) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, not being a case to which any other Paragraph of Part III applies. In such cases, the income-tax exemption limit will remain the same. The rates of income-tax will also remain the same. However, the tax slabs are revised as under:—

Up to Rs. 1,60,000	Nil
Rs. 1,60,001 to 5,00,000	10 per cent.
Rs. 5,00,001 to 8,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 8,00,000	30 per cent.

In the case of every individual, being a woman resident in India, and below the age of sixty-five years at any time during the previous year,—

Up to Rs. 1,90,000	Nil
Rs. 1,90,001 to 5,00,000	10 per cent.
Rs. 5,00,001 to 8,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 8,00,000	30 per cent.

In the case of every individual, being a resident in India, who is of the age of sixty-five years or more at any time during the previous year,—

Up to Rs. 2,40,000	Nil
Rs. 2,40,001 to 5,00,000	10 per cent.
Rs. 5,00,001 to 8,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 8,00,000	30 per cent.

No surcharge shall be levied in the case of persons covered in paragraph A of Part-III of the First Schedule.

Paragraph B of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of every co-operative society. In such cases, the rates of tax will continue to be the same as those specified for the assessment year 2010-2011. No surcharge will be levied.

Paragraph C of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every firm. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for the assessment year 2010-2011. No surcharge will be levied.

Paragraph D of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every local authority. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for the assessment year 2010-2011. No surcharge will be levied.

Paragraph E of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of companies. In such cases, the rates of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for the assessment year 2010-2011.

For the financial year 2010-2011, surcharge in the case of a domestic company having income above one crore rupees is proposed to be reduced to seven and one-half per cent. from the existing rate of ten per cent. Marginal relief will be provided. In case of a company other than a domestic company, the surcharge shall continue to be levied at the rate of two and one-half per cent. and subject to the same conditions as were applicable for the assessment year 2010-2011.

In all other cases (including sections 115JB, 115-O, 115R, etc.) where surcharge at the rate of ten per cent. was applicable, the surcharge will be applicable at the rate of seven and one-half per cent.

"Education Cess" at the rate of two per cent. and "Secondary and Higher Education Cess" at the rate of one per cent. shall continue to be levied in all cases covered under Part III of the First Schedule. In the cases covered under Part II of the First Schedule, there will be no levy of the Education Cess and Secondary and Higher Education Cess on tax deducted or collected at source in the case of a domestic company and any other person who is resident in India. Both the cesses would, however, continue to apply on tax deducted at source in the case of salary payments. These would also continue to be levied in the cases of persons not resident in India and companies other than domestic companies.

Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to amend section 2 of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions.

The existing provision contained in clause (15) of the aforesaid section defines "charitable purpose" to include, inter alia, "the advancement of any other object of general public utility". The proviso to the said clause provides that "the advancement of any other object of general public utility" shall not be a charitable purpose, if it involves the carrying on of any activity in the nature of trade, commerce or business, or any activity of rendering any service in relation to any trade, commerce or business, for a cess or fee or any other consideration, irrespective of the nature of use or application, or retention, of the income from such activity.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to amend the said clause (15) by inserting a second proviso therein to provide that the first proviso shall not apply if the aggregate value of receipts from the activities referred to in the first proviso is ten lakh rupees or less in the previous year.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2009 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2009-2010 and subsequent years.

The existing provision contained in sub-clause (xv) of clause (24) of the aforesaid section provides that any sum of money or value of property referred to in clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of section 56 will fall within the definition of "income".

Sub-clause (b) proposes to amend sub-clause (xv) to also make a reference therein to value of property referred to in the proposed clause (vii) to sub-section (2) of section 56. This amendment is consequential to the amendment made vide sub-clause (b) of clause 21 of the Bill.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2010 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to amend section 9 of the Income-tax Act relating to income deemed to accrue or arise in India.

The existing provisions contained in the Explanation occurring after sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section provide that, for the removal of doubts, for the purposes of the said section, where income is deemed to accrue or arise in India under clauses (v), (vi) and (vii) of sub-section (1), such income shall be included in the total income of the non-resident, whether or not, the non-resident has a residence or place of business or business connection in India.

It is proposed to substitute the said Explanation so as to provide that the income of a non-resident shall be deemed to accrue or arise in India under clause (v) or clause (vi) or clause (vii) of sub-section (1) and shall be included in the total income of the non-resident, whether or not,—

- (i) the non-resident has a residence or place of business or business connection in India; or
- (ii) the non-resident has rendered services in India.

This amendment will take effect, retrospectively, from 1st June, 1976 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1977-1978 and subsequent years.

Clause 5 of the Bill seeks to amend section 10 of the Income-tax Act relating to incomes not included in total income.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (21) of the aforesaid section, in computing the total income of the previous year of any person, any income of a scientific research association for the time being approved for the purpose of clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 35 is not included.

It is proposed to amend clause (21) of the aforesaid section so as to make it also applicable to a research association which has as its object, undertaking research in social science or statistical research, provided such research association is approved and notified under clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 35. Consequently, the income of such association shall not be included in its total income.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 6 of the Bill seeks to amend section 10AA of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision in respect of newly established Units in Special Economic Zones.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-section (7) of the aforesaid section, as they would stand before section 6 of the

<http://indiabudget.nic.in>

Finance (No.2) Act, 2009 comes into force, the profits derived from the export of articles or things or services shall be the amount which bears to the profits of the business of the undertaking, being the Unit, the same proportion as the export turnover in respect of such articles or things or services bears to the total turnover of the business carried on by the assessee.

The aforesaid provision was amended by section 6 of the Finance (No.2) Act, 2009, so as to substitute the reference to "assessee" by the word "undertaking". The said amendment will become effective from 1st April, 2010 and accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2010-2011 and subsequent years.

It is proposed to insert a proviso to the aforesaid sub-section (7) so as to make the provisions of the said amended sub-section effective retrospectively for the assessment year beginning on 1st April, 2006 and subsequent assessment years.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2010.

Clause 7 of the Bill seeks to amend section 12AA of the Income-tax Act relating to procedure for registration of a trust or institution.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (3) of the aforesaid section, if the activities of the trust or institution referred to in sub-section (1), which has been granted registration under sub-section (1), are not genuine or are not being carried out in accordance with the objects of the trust or institution, the Commissioner shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the said trust or institution, pass an order in writing cancelling the registration granted under clause (b) of sub-section (1).

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (3) so as to also provide for cancellation of registration where any trust or institution has obtained registration at any time under section 12A before its amendment.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2010.

Clause 8 of the Bill seeks to amend section 32 of the Income-tax Act relating to depreciation.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that the aggregate depreciation allowable to the predecessor and successor business entities in case of succession or amalgamation shall not exceed in any previous year the deduction allowable at prescribed rates as if the succession or amalgamation had not taken place and such deduction shall be apportioned between the two entities in the ratio of the number of days for which the assets were used by them.

It is proposed to make a reference of clause (xiiib) in the fifth proviso to sub-section (1) of the aforesaid section to provide that in case of succession of a private company or unlisted public company by limited liability partnership, the aggregate depreciation allowable to the predecessor company and the successor limited liability partnership shall not exceed, in any previous year, the deduction calculated at the prescribed rate as if no succession has taken place.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 9 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35 of the Income-tax Act relating to expenditure on research.

Sub-clause (i) of clause 9 seeks to amend sub-section (1) of the aforesaid section 35.

The existing provisions contained in clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of the said section provide for weighted deduction to the extent of one hundred twenty-five per cent. of any sum paid to a scientific research association which has the object of undertaking scientific research or to a university, college or other institution to be used for scientific research.

Item (b) of sub-clause (i) proposes to amend the said clause (ii) so as to enhance the said weighted deduction from one hundred and twenty-five per cent. to one hundred and seventy-five per cent.

Clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of the aforesaid section provides that weighted deduction shall be allowed in respect of contributions made to an approved university, college or institution to be used for research in social science or statistical research.

Item (c) of sub-clause (i) proposes to amend clause (iii) of the aforesaid sub-section to include research associations, which have as their object, undertaking of research in social science or statistical research provided such research associations are approved and notified. Accordingly, any sum paid to such research associations shall be eligible for weighted deduction.

Sub-clause (ii) of clause 9 seeks to amend sub-section (2AA) of the aforesaid section 35.

The existing provisions contained in clause (a) of sub-section (2AA) of the said section provide for a weighted deduction to the extent of one hundred and twenty-five per cent. of any sum paid to a National Laboratory or a University or an Indian Institute of Technology or a specified person for the purpose of an approved scientific research programme.

It is proposed to amend the said clause (a) so as to enhance the said weighted deduction from one hundred and twenty-five per cent. to one hundred and seventy-five per cent.

Sub-clause (iii) of clause 9 seeks to amend sub-section (2AB) of the aforesaid section 35.

The existing provisions contained in clause (1) of sub-section (2AB) of the said section provide for weighted deduction of one hundred and fifty per cent. of the expenditure incurred by a company on scientific research on an approved in-house research and development facility.

It is proposed to amend the said clause (1) so as to enhance the said weighted deduction from one hundred and fifty per cent. to two hundred per cent.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 10 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35AD of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions in respect of expenditure on specified business.

Under the existing provisions of the aforesaid section, deduction in respect of expenditure of capital nature incurred, wholly or exclusively, during the year for a specified business is allowed. The expression "specified business" is defined in clause (c) of sub-section (8) of the said section. The specified business, inter alia, includes the business of laying and operating a cross-country natural gas or crude or petroleum oil pipeline network for distribution, including storage facilities being an integral part of such network. The conditions to be applied to specified business are laid down in sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section. One of such conditions is that the aforesaid specified business should have made not less than one-third of its total pipeline capacity available for use on common carrier basis by any person other than the assessee or an associated person.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to amend sub-clause (c) of clause (iii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section 35AD so as to provide that the proportion of the total pipeline capacity to be made available for use on common carrier basis should be as specified by regulations made by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2010 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to assessment year 2010-2011 and subsequent years.

<http://indiabudget.nic.in>

The existing provisions contained in sub-section (3) of the aforesaid section 35AD provide that the assessee shall not be allowed any deduction in respect of the specified business under the provisions of Chapter VI-A under the heading "C.-Deductions in respect of certain incomes".

Sub-clause (b) proposes to substitute sub-section (3) of the aforesaid section so as to provide that where a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed in respect of the specified business for any assessment year, no deduction shall be allowed under the provisions of Chapter VI-A under the heading "C.-Deductions in respect of certain incomes" in relation to such specified business for the same or any other assessment year.

Sub-section (5) of the aforesaid section 35AD prescribes the conditions as regards the date of commencement of the specified business.

Sub-clause (c) proposes to amend sub-section (5) of the aforesaid section so as to insert a new clause (aa) to provide that the specified business in the nature of building and operating a new hotel of two-star or above category as classified by the Central Government should commence its operation on or after 1st April, 2010.

The existing provisions of clause (c) of sub-section (8) of the aforesaid section 35AD define the expression "specified business" to mean the business of setting up and operating a cold chain facility, a warehousing facility for storage of agricultural produce and laying and operating a cross-country natural gas or crude or petroleum oil pipeline network.

Sub-clause (d) proposes to amend clause (c) of sub-section (8) of the aforesaid section so as to bring the business relating to building and operating, anywhere in India, a new hotel of two-star or above category as classified by the Central Government within the purview of "specified business".

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 11 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35DDA of the Income-tax Act relating to amortisation of expenditure incurred under voluntary retirement scheme.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that where an assessee incurs any expenditure in any previous year by way of payment of any sum to an employee at the time of his voluntary retirement under any scheme of voluntary retirement, one-fifth of the amount so paid shall be deducted in computing the profits and gains of the business for that previous year and the balance shall be deducted in equal instalments for each of the four immediately succeeding previous years.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to amend the aforesaid section so as to insert a new sub-section (4A) to provide that in case of succession of a private company or unlisted public company by a limited liability partnership, the provisions of the said section shall apply to the successor limited liability partnership as they would have applied to the predecessor company.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to amend sub-section (5) of the aforesaid section to provide that in case of such conversion, no deduction under the said section shall be allowed to the predecessor company in the previous year in which the conversion takes place.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 12 of the Bill seeks to amend section 40 of the Income-tax Act relating to amounts not deductible.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-clause (ia) of clause (a) of the aforesaid section, non-deduction of tax or non-payment of tax after deduction on payment of any sum by way of interest, commission or brokerage, rent, royalty, fees for professional services or fees for technical services payable to a resident or amounts payable to a contractor or sub-contractor, being resident, results in the disallowance of the said sum, in the computation of income of the payer, on which tax is required to be deducted under Chapter XVII-B.

The proviso to the said sub-clause provides that where in respect of any such sum, tax has been deducted in any subsequent year, or has been deducted during the last month of the previous year but paid after the due date of filing of return or deducted during any other month of the previous year but paid after the end of the said previous year, such sum shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the income of the previous year in which such tax has been paid.

It is proposed to amend sub-clause (ia) of clause (a) of the aforesaid section to provide that disallowance under the said sub-clause will be attracted, if, after deduction of tax during the previous year, the same has not been paid on or before the due date of filing of return of income specified in sub-section (1) of section 139.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2010, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2010-2011 and subsequent years.

Clause 13 of the Bill seeks to amend section 43 of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions of certain terms relevant to income from profits and gains of business or profession.

The existing provisions contained in Explanation 13 to clause (1) of the aforesaid section provide that the actual cost of any capital asset on which deduction has been allowed or is allowable under section 35AD shall be treated as 'nil' in specified circumstances.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to make a reference of clause (xiiib) of section 47 in sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) of the said Explanation, to provide that in case of succession of a private company or unlisted public company by a limited liability partnership, the actual cost of capital assets on which deduction has been allowed under section 35AD to the predecessor company shall be taken as 'nil' in case of the successor limited liability partnership.

Clause (6) of the aforesaid section defines the expression 'written down value'.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to amend clause (6) of the aforesaid section by inserting a new Explanation 2C to the said clause (6) so as to provide that in case of succession of private company or unlisted public company by limited liability partnership, the actual cost of the block of assets in case of successor limited liability partnership shall be the written down value of the block of assets as in the case of the predecessor company on the date of conversion.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 14 of the Bill seeks to amend section 44AB of the Income-tax Act relating to audit of accounts of certain persons carrying on business or profession.

The existing provisions contained in clause (a) of the aforesaid section make it obligatory for every person carrying on business to get his accounts of any previous year relevant to the assessment year audited by an accountant before the specified date if the total sales, turnover or gross receipts in business for the previous year exceeds forty lakh rupees.

It is proposed to enhance the said limit from forty lakh rupees to sixty lakh rupees.

The existing provisions contained in clause (b) of the aforesaid section make it obligatory for every person carrying on profession to get his accounts of any previous year relevant to the assessment year audited by an accountant before the said specified date if his gross receipts in profession for the previous year exceed ten lakh rupees.

It is proposed to enhance the said limit from ten lakh rupees to fifteen lakh rupees.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 15 of the Bill seeks to amend section 44AD of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision for computing profits and gains of business on presumptive basis.

The existing sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of the Explanation to the aforesaid section defines the term "eligible business" to mean any business except the business of plying, hiring or leasing goods carriages referred to in section 44AE and whose total turnover or gross receipts in previous year does not exceed forty lakh rupees for the purpose of computing profits and gains of business on presumptive basis.

It is proposed to enhance the said limit from forty lakh rupees to sixty lakh rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 16 of the Bill seeks to amend section 44BB of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision for computing profits and gains in connection with the business of exploration, etc., of mineral oils.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-section (1) of the aforesaid section, income of a non-resident assessee who is engaged in the business of providing services or facilities in connection with, or supplying plant and machinery on hire used, or to be used, in the prospecting for, or extraction or production of, mineral oils is computed at ten per cent. of the aggregate of the amounts paid or payable to the assessee or to any person on his behalf, whether in or out of India on account of the provisions of such services and facilities. The proviso to the said sub-section provides that the said sub-section shall not apply in a case where the provisions of section 42 or section 44D or section 115A or section 293A apply for the purposes of computing profits or gains or any other income referred to in those sections.

It is proposed to insert the reference of "section 44DA" in the proviso to the said sub-section (1) so as to clarify that the provisions of section 44BB shall also not apply in case where the provisions of section 44DA become applicable.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 17 of the Bill seeks to amend section 44DA of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision for computing income by way of royalties, etc., in case of non-residents.

The existing section 44DA provides the procedure for computing income by way of royalty or fees for technical services, in case the right, property or contract giving rise to such income are effectively connected with the permanent establishment of the non-resident, through which business is carried out in India.

It is proposed to insert a second proviso to the said section so as to clarify that the provisions of section 44BB shall not apply in respect of income referred to in the aforesaid section 44DA.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 18 of the Bill seeks to amend section 47 of the Income-tax Act relating to transactions not regarded as transfer.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that certain transactions are not regarded as transfer for the purpose of section 45 of the Income-tax Act.

It is proposed to amend the aforesaid section so as to insert a new clause (xiiib) in section 47 which provides that any transfer of a capital asset or intangible asset by a company shall not be treated as transfer under section 45 where a private company or unlisted public company (hereinafter referred to as the company) is converted into a limited liability partnership in accordance with the provisions of section 56 or 57 of the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008.

It is also proposed to insert a proviso to the said clause which provides that (a) all the assets and liabilities of the company immediately before the conversion become the assets and liabilities of the limited liability partnership; (b) all the shareholders of the company immediately before the conversion become the partners of the limited liability partnership, and their capital contribution and profit sharing ratio in the limited liability partnership are in the same proportion as their shareholding in the company on the date of conversion; (c) the shareholders of the company do not receive any consideration or benefit, directly or indirectly, in any form or manner, other than by way of share in profit and capital contribution in the limited liability partnership; (d) the aggregate of the profit sharing ratio of the shareholders of the company in the limited liability partnership shall not be less than fifty per cent. at any time during the period of five years from the date of conversion; (e) the total sales, turnover or gross receipts in business of the company in any of the three previous years preceding the previous year in which the conversion takes place does not exceed sixty lakh rupees; and (f) no amount is paid, either directly or indirectly, to any partner out of balance of accumulated profit standing in the accounts of the company on the date of conversion for a period of three years from the date of conversion.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 19 of the Bill seeks to amend section 47A of the Income-tax Act relating to withdrawal of exemption in certain cases.

It is proposed to amend the aforesaid section so as to insert a new sub-section (4) which provides that where any of the conditions stipulated in the proviso to clause (xiiib) of section 47 are not complied with, the amount of profits or gains arising from the transfer of capital assets by the predecessor private company or unlisted public company to the successor limited liability partnership on succession shall be deemed to be the profits or gains chargeable to tax of the successor limited liability partnership for the previous year in which the conditions stipulated in the proviso to clause (xiiib) of section 47 are not complied with.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 20 of the Bill seeks to amend section 49 of the Income-tax Act relating to cost with reference to certain modes of acquisition.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that in certain circumstances the cost of acquisition of the assets shall be deemed to be the cost for which the previous owner of the asset acquired it.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to amend sub-clause (e) of clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of the aforesaid section so as to make a reference of clause (xiiib) of section 47 in the said sub-clause (e) to provide that in case of succession of a private company or unlisted public company by a limited liability partnership, the cost of acquisition of the assets for the successor limited liability partnership shall be deemed to be the cost for which the predecessor company acquired it.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (4) of section 49, where the capital gain arises from the transfer of a property, the value of which has been subject to income-tax under clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of section 56, the cost of acquisition of such property shall be deemed to be the value which has been taken into account for the purposes of the said clause (vii).

Sub-clause (b) proposes to amend the aforesaid sub-section so as to provide that the cost of acquisition of such property shall be deemed to be the value which has been taken into account for the purpose of clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of section 56 also.

This amendment is consequential to the amendment made vide sub-clause (b) of clause 21 of the Bill and will take effect from 1st June, 2010 and will, accordingly, apply to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 21 of the Bill seeks to amend section 56 of the Income-tax Act relating to income from other sources.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-clause (b) of clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section, if an assessee being an individual or a Hindu undivided family receives any immovable property without consideration or for inadequate consideration, the value of the said property shall be treated as income in the hands of assessee and shall be liable to tax.

It is proposed to substitute the aforesaid sub-clause (b) of clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section so as to provide that clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of section 56 would apply only if the immovable property is received without any consideration and to remove the stipulation as regards inadequate consideration.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st October, 2009, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2010-2011 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (d) of the Explanation to clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section, certain properties have been enumerated within the definition of "property".

It is proposed to amend the aforesaid clause (d) of the Explanation to clause (vii) of sub-section (2) so as to specify that clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section will have application to "property" which is in the nature of capital asset of the assessee.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st October, 2009, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2010-2011 and subsequent years.

It is also proposed to amend clause (d) of the said Explanation to insert a new sub-clause (ix) so as to include "bullion" within the specified categories of property.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2010, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (vii) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section, if an assessee who is an individual or a Hindu undivided family receives specified property without consideration or for inadequate consideration from persons other than relatives defined in the said section, the value of the said property shall be treated as income in the hand of assessee and shall be taxed.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (viiia) in sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section so as to include the transactions undertaken in shares of a company not being a company in which the public are substantially interested where the recipient is a firm or a company not being a company in which the public are substantially interested.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2010, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 22 of the Bill seeks to amend section 72A of the Income-tax Act, relating to carry forward and set off of accumulated loss and unabsorbed depreciation allowance in amalgamation or demerger, etc.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to insert a new sub-section (6A) which provides that in case of succession of business, whereby, a private company or unlisted public company is succeeded by a limited liability partnership fulfilling the conditions laid down in the proviso to clause (xiib) of section 47, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of the Act, the accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the predecessor company shall be deemed to be the loss or, as the case may be, allowance for depreciation of the successor limited liability partnership for the previous year in which business reorganisation was effected and the other provisions of the Act relating to set off and carry forward loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly. However, if the conditions stipulated in the proviso to clause (xiib) of section 47 are not complied with, the set off of loss or allowance of depreciation which had been allowed shall be deemed to be the income chargeable to tax of the successor limited liability partnership for the previous year in which the conditions stipulated in the proviso to clause (xiib) of section 47 are not complied with.

The existing provisions of clause (a) and clause (b) of sub-section (7) of the aforesaid section defines the expressions "accumulated loss" and "unabsorbed depreciation" respectively for the purpose of the aforesaid section.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to substitute the said clauses (a) and (b) to redefine the expressions as under:—

(a) "accumulated loss" means so much of the loss of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the private company or unlisted public company before conversion into limited liability partnership or the amalgamating company or the demerged company, as the case may be, under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" (not being a loss sustained in a speculation business) which such predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the company or amalgamating company or demerged company, would have been entitled to carry forward and set off under the provisions of section 72 if the reorganisation of business or conversion or amalgamation or demerger had not taken place;

(b) "unabsorbed depreciation" means so much of the allowance for depreciation of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the private company or unlisted public company before conversion into limited liability partnership or the amalgamating company or the demerged company, as the case may be, which remains to be allowed and which would have been allowed to the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the company or amalgamating company or demerged company, as the case may be, under the provisions of this Act, if the reorganisation of business or conversion or amalgamation or demerger had not taken place.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 23 of the Bill seeks to amend section 80A of the Income-tax Act, relating to deductions to be made in computing total income.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that the aggregate amount of deductions in computing the total income shall not, in any case, exceed the gross total income of the assessee.

It is proposed to amend the aforesaid section so as to insert a new sub-section (7) to provide that where a deduction under any provision of this Chapter under the heading "C.- Deductions in respect of certain incomes" is claimed and allowed in respect of profits of any of the specified business referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (8) of section 35AD for any assessment year, no deduction shall be allowed under the provisions of section 35AD in relation to such specified business for the same or any other assessment year.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 24 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 80CCF in the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of subscription to long-term infrastructure bonds.

It is proposed to insert a new section so as to provide that a sum of rupees twenty thousand in addition to the existing limit of rupees one lakh for tax savings under the Income-tax Act may be allowed as a specific deduction in computing the total income of an assessee being an individual or a Hindu undivided family if such sum is paid or deposited at any time during the previous year relevant to the assessment year beginning on 1st April, 2011 as subscription to long-term infrastructure bonds as may be notified by the Central Government.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012.

Clause 25 of the Bill seeks to amend section 80D of the Income-tax Act, relating to deduction in respect of health insurance premia.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section 80D, the whole of the amount paid by any mode, other than cash, in the previous year out of the income of the assessee, being an individual, to effect or keep in force an insurance on his health or the health of his family as does not exceed in the aggregate fifteen thousand rupees, is allowed to be deducted in computing the total income of the assessee.

It is proposed to amend the said clause (a) so as to also allow the benefit of the deduction in respect of a contribution made by the assessee during the previous year to the Central Government Health Scheme within the said limit.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 26 of the Bill seeks to amend section 80GGA of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of certain donations for scientific research or rural development.

Clause (aa) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section provides that donations made to a university, college or other institution to be used for research in social science or statistical research qualify for deduction under that section provided such university, college or institution is approved for the purposes of clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 35.

It is proposed to amend the aforesaid clause so as to also include a research association which has as its object undertaking of research in social science or statistical research and which for the time being is approved for the purposes of clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 35. Accordingly, any sum paid to such research association will be eligible for deduction under the aforesaid section.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 27 of the Bill seeks to amend section 80-IB of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of profits and gains from certain industrial undertakings other than infrastructure development undertakings.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-section (10) of the aforesaid section, hundred per cent. deduction is available in respect of profits derived by an undertaking from developing and building housing projects approved by a local authority before 31st

March, 2008. It is further provided in clause (a) that where a housing project has been, or, is approved by the local authority on or after 1st April, 2004, it should be completed within four years from the end of the financial year in which the housing project is approved by the local authority.

It is proposed to increase the period for completion of a housing project, approved on or after 1st April, 2005, from four years to five years.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (d) of sub-section (10) of the aforesaid section, the built-up area of the shops and other commercial establishments included in the housing project should not exceed five per cent. of the aggregate built-up area of the housing project or 2,000 square feet, whichever is less.

It is proposed to revise the existing limit to three per cent. of the aggregate built-up area of the housing project or 5,000 square feet, whichever is higher.

Under the existing provisions of the aforesaid section an application can be made before the Settlement Commission, if the additional amount of income-tax payable on the income disclosed in the application exceeds three lakh rupees.

It is proposed to substitute the proviso of the said section so as to provide that an application can be made before the Settlement Commission, in cases where proceedings for assessment or reassessment have been initiated as a result of search under section 132 or books of account, other documents or any assets requisitioned under section 132A, if the additional amount of income-tax payable on the income disclosed in the application exceeds fifty lakh rupees.

It is further proposed to provide that, in other cases, an application can be made before the Settlement Commission, if the additional amount of income-tax payable on the income disclosed in the application exceeds ten lakh rupees.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2010.

Clause 47 of the Bill seeks to amend section 245D of the Income-tax Act relating to the procedure on receipt of an application under section 245C.

Under the existing provisions of sub-section (4A) of the aforesaid section, the Settlement Commission shall pass an order within twelve months from the end of the month in which the application was made.

It is proposed to amend clause (ii) of the aforesaid sub-section so as to provide that the Settlement Commission shall, in respect of an application made on or after 1st June, 2007 but before 1st June, 2010, pass an order within the said period of twelve months.

It is further proposed to insert clause (iii) in the said sub-section so as to provide that the Settlement Commission shall, in respect of an application made on or after 1st June, 2010, pass an order within eighteen months from the end of the month in which the application was made.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2010.

Clause 48 of the Bill seeks to amend section 256 of the Income-tax Act relating to statement of case to the High Court.

The existing provision contained in sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section provides for a period of six months from the date of receipt of the order of Tribunal refusing to state the case on the ground that no question of law arises. The assessee or the Commissioner may within the said period apply to the High Court to require the Tribunal to state the case and to refer to it.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (2A) so as to empower the High Court to admit an application after the expiry of said period of six months, if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing the same within the said period.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st June, 1981.

Clause 49 of the Bill seeks to amend section 260A of the Income-tax Act relating to appeal to High Court.

The existing provision contained in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of the aforesaid section provides one hundred and twenty days from the date of receipt of the order appealed against, as the period of limitation for filing of an appeal to the High Court.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (2A) so as to empower the High Court to admit an appeal after the expiry of said period of one hundred and twenty days if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within the said period.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st October, 1998.

Clause 50 of the Bill seeks to amend section 271B of the Income-tax Act relating to failure to get accounts audited.

The existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section provide that if any person fails to get his accounts audited in respect of any previous year relevant to an assessment year or furnish a report of such audit as required under section 44AB, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty equal to one-half per cent. of the total sales, turnover or gross receipts, as the case may be, in business, or of the gross receipts in profession, in such previous year or a sum of one lakh rupees, whichever is less.

It is proposed to enhance the said limit from one lakh rupees to one lakh fifty thousand rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011, and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Clause 51 of the Bill seeks to amend section 282B of the Income-tax Act relating to allotment of Document Identification Number.

Under the existing provisions contained in the aforesaid section, the income-tax authority is required to allot a computer generated Document Identification Number before issue of every notice, order, letter or any correspondence issued by him to any other income-tax authority or assessee or any other person and such number shall be quoted thereon. It also provides that every document, letter or correspondence received by an income-tax authority or on behalf of such authority, shall be accepted only after allotting and quoting of a computer generated Document Identification Number. The provisions of this section will come into force with effect from 1st October, 2010.

It is proposed to amend the provisions of the said section so as to provide that Document Identification Number will be required to be allotted on or after 1st July, 2011.

This amendment will take effect from 1st October, 2010.

Clause 52 of the Bill seeks to amend rule 5 of the First Schedule to the Income-tax Act relating to computation of profits and gains of other insurance business.

Under the provisions contained in clause (b) of rule 5 of the said Schedule, as inserted by clause (ii) of section 80 of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2009, adjustment shall be made by way of deduction in respect of any amount either written off or provided in the accounts to meet diminution in or loss on realisation of investments in accordance with the regulations made by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority. Adjustment shall also be made by way of increase in respect of any amount taken credit for in the accounts on account of appreciation of or gains on realisation of investments in accordance with the regulations made by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority.

It is proposed to substitute the aforesaid clause (b) so as to provide that any gain or loss on realisation of investments shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, if such gain or loss is not credited or debited to the profit and loss account and any provision for diminution in the value of investment debited to the profit and loss account shall be added back.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2011 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2011-2012 and subsequent years.

Wealth-tax

Clause 53 of the Bill seeks to amend section 22A of the Wealth-tax Act relating to definitions.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (b) of the aforesaid section, the word "case" means any proceeding for assessment of any person in respect of any assessment year or assessment years which may be pending before an Assessing Officer on the date on which an application under sub-section (1) of section 22C is made. It, inter alia, provides that a proceeding of assessment or reassessment for any of the assessment years which may be initiated on the basis of a search under section 37A or requisition under section 37B shall not be a proceeding for assessment for the purpose of this clause.

It is proposed to omit clause (iii) of the proviso to clause (b) of the aforesaid section so as to include within the definition of "case", the proceedings of assessment or reassessment which may be initiated on the basis of a search under section 37A or requisition under section 37B.

The existing provisions of the Explanation to clause (b) of the aforesaid section provide for the date on which proceedings for assessment or reassessment shall be deemed to have commenced.

It is further proposed to amend the Explanation to specify the date on which the proceedings for assessment or reassessment shall be deemed to have been initiated and concluded pursuant to a search under section 37A or requisition made under section 37B.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2010.

Clause 54 of the Bill seeks to amend section 22D of the Wealth-tax Act relating to procedure on receipt of an application under section 22C.

Under the existing provisions of sub-section (4A) of the aforesaid section, Settlement Commission shall pass an order within twelve months from the end of the month in which the application was made.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to provide that the Settlement Commission shall pass an order in respect of an application made on or after 1st June, 2007 but before 1st June, 2010, within twelve months and in respect of application made on or after 1st June, 2010 within eighteen months from the end of the month in which the application was made.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2010.

Clause 55 of the Bill seeks to amend section 27 of the Wealth-tax Act relating to reference to High Court.

The existing provision contained in sub-section (3) of the aforesaid section provides for a period of ninety days, from the date of receipt of the order of Tribunal refusing to state the case on the ground that no question of law arises. The assessee or the Commissioner may within the said period apply to the High Court to require the Tribunal to state the case and to refer it.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (3B) so as to empower the High Court to admit an application after the expiry of said period of ninety days if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within the said period.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st June, 1981.

Clause 56 of the Bill seeks to amend section 27A of the Wealth-tax Act relating to appeal to High Court.

The existing provision contained in sub-section (1) of the said section provides one hundred and twenty days, from the date of receipt of the order appealed against, as the period of limitation for filing an appeal to the High Court.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (1A) so as to empower the High Court to admit an appeal after the expiry of said period of one hundred and twenty days if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing the same within that period.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st October, 1998.

The proposed amendment will apply to cases in respect of which a dispute relating to adjustment of credit on inputs in or in relation to exempted final products relating to the period beginning on the 1st day of April, 2000 to 30th day of June, 2001 (both days inclusive) is pending on the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

Clause 70 of the Bill seeks to amend rule 6 of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2001 in the manner specified in column (3) of the Sixth Schedule with retrospective effect, on or from and up to date specified in column (4) thereof, so as to provide for payment by manufacturer of an amount equal to CENVAT credit attributable to inputs used in or in relation to manufacture of exempted goods before or after clearance of such goods along with interest at the rate of twenty-four per cent. per annum. The proposed amendment will apply to cases in respect of which a dispute relating to adjustment of credit on inputs in or in relation to exempted final products relating to the period beginning on the 1st day of July, 2001 to 28th day of February, 2002 (both days inclusive) is pending on the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

Clause 71 of the Bill seeks to amend rule 6 of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2002 in the manner specified in column (3) of the Seventh Schedule with retrospective effect, on or from and up to date specified in column (4) thereof, so as to provide for payment by manufacturer of an amount equal to CENVAT credit attributable to inputs used in or in relation to manufacture of exempted goods or goods chargeable to nil rate of duty before or after clearance of such goods along with interest at the rate of twenty-four per cent. per annum. The proposed amendment will apply to cases in respect of which a dispute relating to adjustment of credit on inputs in or in relation to exempted final products relating to the period beginning on the 1st day of March, 2002 to 9th day of September, 2004 (both days inclusive) is pending on the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

Clause 72 of the Bill seeks to amend rule 6 of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 in the manner specified in column (3) of the Eighth Schedule with retrospective effect, on or from and up to date specified in column (4) thereof, so as to provide for payment by manufacturer of an amount equal to CENVAT credit attributable to inputs or inputs services used in or in relation to manufacture of exempted goods or goods chargeable to nil rate of duty before or after clearance of such goods along with interest at the rate of twenty-four per cent. per annum. The proposed amendment will apply to cases in respect of which a dispute relating to adjustment of credit on inputs in or in relation to exempted final products relating to the period beginning on the 10th day of September, 2004 to 31st day of March, 2008 (both days inclusive) is pending on the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

Clause 73 of the Bill seeks to amend notification issued under rule 5 of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 so as to substitute the words "used in" with the words "used in or in relation to" occurring in clauses (a) and (b) of the said rule 5. Further it proposes to omit the illustration occurring in condition 5 of the Appendix.

Excise Tariff

Clause 74 of the Bill seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Central Excise Tariff Act in the manner specified in the Ninth Schedule with a view to, –

(i) amend the tariff entries and effect changes in duty rate relating to certain entries against certain tariff items falling under the Chapter 24, Chapter 27, Chapter 48, Chapter 50 to Chapter 63, Chapter 90 and Chapter 95; and

(ii) insert Note to Chapters 68 and 76 to declare certain processes as amounting to manufacture.

Service Tax

Clause 75 of the Bill seeks to amend Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994, relating to service tax in the following manner, namely:-

(1) sub-clause (A) seeks to amend section 65 so as to-

(a) define the terms "business entity" and "port services";

(b) modify the scope of certain taxable services by amending sub-clauses (zn), (ztc), (zt), (zsm), (zsq), (zzzh), (zzzn), (zzzo), (zzzz), (zzzze), (zzzzf) of clause (105);

(c) specify new taxable services by inserting sub-clauses (zzzzn) to (zzzzu) in clause (105);

(2) sub-clause (B) seeks to amend section 66 with effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint so as to include the services mentioned in sub-clauses (zzzzn) to (zzzzu) as taxable services.

(3) sub-clause (C) seeks to amend sub-section (3) of section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 so as to insert an Explanation therein with a view to provide that no penalty under any provision of this Act or rules made thereunder shall be imposed in respect of payment made under that sub-section.

(4) sub-clause (D) seeks to amend section 95 of the Finance Act, 1994 so as to empower the Central Government to issue orders for removal of difficulty in case of implementing, classifying or assessing the value of any taxable service incorporated by the proposed legislation in this Chapter up to one year from the date of enactment of the Finance Bill, 2010.

Clause 76 of the Bill seeks to validate certain action taken under sub-clause (zzzz) clause (105) of section 65 of the Finance Act, 1994, regarding the taxable service of renting of immovable property.

Central Sales Tax

Clause 77 of the Bill seeks to amend the Central Sales Tax Act, with a view to amend sub-section (2) of section 6A of the Central Sales Tax Act, so as to -

(i) provide that for making an order under that sub-section, the assessing officer shall, in addition to satisfying himself about the truthfulness of the particulars furnished by a dealer, shall also satisfy himself that no inter-State sales have been effected and also to provide that the deeming provision as contained therein to the effect that "the movement of goods have not occasioned as a result of sale", shall be subject to the provisions of sub-section (3); and

(ii) insert a new sub-section (3) so as to specify that nothing contained in sub-section (2) shall preclude reassessment by the assessing authority on the basis of new facts discovered or revision by a higher authority on the ground that the findings of the assessing authority are contrary to law, and such reassessment or revision may be done in accordance with the provisions of general sales tax law of the State.

Clause 78 of the Bill seeks to insert a new Chapter VA in the Central Sales Tax Act, relating to appeals to the highest appellate authority of the State.

The proposed Chapter seeks to insert a new section 18A so as to make a provision for appeals to the highest appellate authority of every State against the orders made under sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) of section 6A including incidental issues relating to rate of tax, computation of assessable turnover and penalty and also procedure before such highest appellate authority.

Clause 79 of the Bill seeks to amend section 20 of the Central Sales Tax Act, by substituting sub-section (1) thereof to provide that an appeal shall lie to the Authority against any order passed by the highest appellate authority of a State under this Act determining issues relating to stock transfers or consignments of goods, in so far as they involve a dispute of inter-State nature and to omit the Explanation thereunder.

Clause 80 of the Bill seeks to amend section 22 of the Central Sales Tax Act, so as to -

(a) substitute the word "pre-deposit", wherever it occurs, with the word "deposit"; and

(b) to insert a new sub-section (1B) to provide for the authority to issue direction for refund of tax collected by a State.

Clause 81 of the Bill seeks to amend section 25 of the Central Sales Tax Act, so as to omit the proviso to sub-section (2) of that section.

Clean Energy Cess

Clause 82 of the Bill seeks to levy a cess to be called the Clean Energy Cess as duty of excise for the purposes of the Union on coal, lignite and peat produced in India.

Clause 83 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to make rules to provide for manner of assessment, collection and utilisation of the cess and also in respect of any other matter relating to cess.

Miscellaneous

Clause 84 of the Bill seeks to amend section 3 of the Medicinal and Toilet Preparations (Excise Duties) Act, 1955, so as to exclude goods produced or manufactured in Special Economic Zones from excise duty leviable under the Act.

Clause 85 of the Bill seeks to amend the Seventh Schedule to the Finance Act, 2001 in the manner specified in the Eleventh Schedule so as to amend certain entries relating to certain tariff items of Chapter 24.

Clause 86 of the Bill seeks to amend the Seventh Schedule to the Finance Act, 2005 in the manner specified in the Twelfth Schedule so as to amend certain entries relating to certain tariff items of Chapter 24.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 24 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 80CCF in the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of subscription to long-term infrastructure bonds.

The proposed new section provides that in computing the total income of an assessee, being an individual or a Hindu undivided family, there shall be deducted, the whole of the amount, to the extent such amount does not exceed twenty thousand rupees, paid or deposited, during the previous year relevant to the assessment year beginning on the 1st day of April, 2011, as subscription to long-term infrastructure bonds as may, for the purposes of this section be notified by the Central Government.

Accordingly, the Central Government is empowered to issue a notification specifying the long-term infrastructure bonds for the purposes of the aforesaid provision.

Clause 67 of the Bill seeks to amend section 37 of the Central Excise Act, with a view to insert a new clause (xiiia) therein. The said clause empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide for withdrawal of facilities or imposition of restrictions on manufacturer or exporter or suspension of registration of dealer for dealing with evasion of duty or misuse of CENVAT credit.

Sub-clause (D) of clause 75 of the Bill seeks to amend section 95 of the Finance Act, 1994 with a view to insert a new sub-section (1G) to empower the Central Government to issue order for removal of any difficulty which may arise in implementing, classifying or assessing the value of any taxable service incorporated by the proposed legislation. The proviso to the said sub-section seeks to provide that any such order shall not be made after the expiry of a period of one year from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2010 receives the assent of the President.

Sub-clause (7) of clause 82 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to issue a notification to declare that any of the provisions of the Central Excise Act relating to levy of and exemption from duty of excise, refund, offences and penalties, confiscation and procedure relating to offences and appeals shall apply to cess levied under sub-section (3) of the said section.

Clause 83 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to make rules to provide for the manner of assessment, collection and utilisation of cess and any other matter relating thereto.

The matters in respect of which notifications may be issued or rules may be made in accordance with the provisions of the Bill are matters of procedure and detail and it is not practicable to provide for them in the Bill itself. The rules as may be made by the Central Government and the orders made under sub-clause (D) of clause 75 of the Bill as may be enacted shall be laid before Parliament.

The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
